

Welfare, Inequality and Poverty Measurement

Prof. Giovanni Vecchi

Master in Development Economics and International Cooperation (MESCI)
University of Rome “Tor Vergata”

April 2020

Short description

Prepare a brief technical note assessing the methodology used in any recent World Bank Poverty Assessment Report, using the World Bank’s repository as your source:

<http://documents.worldbank.org/curated/en/home>

Instructions

You are asked to work individually.

After choosing a country/report that interests you, write a short review report where you i) identify the main methodological weaknesses (the pars destruens of your document), and ii) advise, best if in form of practical recommendations, on how to improve the analysis (pars construens).

Your report should not exceed 4,000 words and should include the list of references used in support of your arguments.

Due date

May 28, 2020, 11:59pm (Rome time).

Please email your report to giovanni.vecchi@uniroma2.it
